JOHN M. MARTIN.

If You Should Ever Get Married.

If you should ever get married, John, all tell you what to do:

Get a little tenement

Just big enough for two;

And one spare room for company.

And one spare bed within it—

And if you begin love's life aright,

You'd better thus begin it.

In furniture be moderate, John,

And let the stuffed chairs wait.

One looking-glass will do for both Yourselves and loving fate.

And Brussels, too, and other things,

Which make a fine appearance,

If you can better afford it, they Will look better a year hence.

Some think they must have pictures, John,

Superb and costly, too.

Your wife will be a picture, John,

Just as sweet as sugar for you.

Remember how the wise man said,

A test and love within it

Is better than a splendid house,

With bickerings every minute.

And one word as to cooking, John,

Your wife can do the best.

For love to make the blacout rise,

Is better far than yeast.

No matter if each day you don't Bring turkey to your table—

'Twill better relish by-and-by

When you are able.

For all you buy pay money, John—

Money that very day!

If you would have your life run smooth,

There is no better way.

A note to pay is an ugly thing,

If it hangs over a man who has No money in his wallet.

And now when you are married, John,

Don't try to ape the rich;

It took them many a toilsome year

To gain their envied niche.

And if you should raise the summit, John,

Look well to your beginning!

And then will all your wish repay

The toil and care of winning.

The wonders of surgery are becoming really marvelous. We hear of a Chicago girl who had two inches of epidermis burned from one of her legs. The skin of a lamb is being grafted upon the wounded part. The living animal is confined in a box and the leg of the patient is brought in contact with the skin of the animal, and as fast as it attaches itself to the limb it is dissected from the lamb, and as soon as the entire wound is covered the two innocents will be completely divorced. The consumption in this case is, will the newly grafted skin grow wool? If so, would it not be a good economic measure to skin everyone's legs and graft them with sheep or lamb skin, and so let everyone grow his or her own stockings?

Lemonade is one of the best and safest drinks for a person, whether in health or not. It is suitable to all stomach diseases; is excellent in sickness. The pips, crushed, may also be mixed with water and used as a drink. We advise everyone to rub the gums daily with lemon juice, to keep them in health. The hands and nails are also kept clean, white, soft and supple, by the use of lemon instead of soap. It also prevents chills. Lemon is used in intermittent fevers, mixed with strong, hot black coffee, without sugar. Neuralgia may be cured by rubbing the parts affected with a cut lemon. It is valuable, also, to cure warts, and to destroy dandruff on the head by rubbing the roots of the hair with it and bringing it face to face with the matterial world and the realities of life, and among the profusion of curiosities and artistic relics which crowd the Emperor William's private cabinet may be seen specimens of bookbinding, carving, carpentering and other handicrafts performed by his sons and grandsons.

It is said that Elisha Bliss Jr., who lately died at Hartford, Conn., made a fortune by discovering the fun of Mark Twain's Innocence Abroad while the world was in married. Twain had tried in vain to find a publisher, and was about to throw the matter aside in despair, when a journalist friend sent him to Bliss, who was President of a subscription book company.

are good enough for relics, but good mass

The Steamers and the Icebergs.

Did you ever realize, good reader, one of the gravest perils which a steamship encounters in a voyage to Europe during the spring or summer months? It is running into an iceberg. These are to be found east of Newfoundland, right in the track of the shortest route to French, German, or English ports. It is usually a foggy region, but although icebergs abound and fogs are ever present, the steamships dash swiftly along, trusting to luck or Providence for safety. It is really a marvel how few accidents occur. But then it has been noticed in battles that no matter how thick the bullets but comparatively few persons are killed and wounded. Several tons of lead are required to maim or murder one human being, in what are called very bloody battles. So it is with steamships. They dash through fog and mist in the region of icebergs unharmed, except in very, very rare instances. This year icebergs have been more numerous than ever before known.
Large fishing fleets have had to put back because of the impediments they presented to navigation. Several vessels were injured, but fortunately no great calamity occurred.
An iceberg is a most magnificent sight, and is the most picturesque object in a voyage to or from Europe. It is believed that this year some poly-christie ice has been brought down from the Arctic regions.
Perhaps you do not know what that big word means. It is ice which has been congealed for perhaps millions of years.
A great deal of the ice, of course, is made every year. But in certain other parts of the region about the south and north poles the ice never melts, but continues age after age without being liquified. Strange as it may seem, there are evidences that icebergs floated over our present land. The bowlders, that is, the great round stones scattered all over our northern country and entirely unlike the rocks in the neighborhood, were certainly deposited by icebergs, which millions of years since floated in an ocean which covered the upper part, at least, of the continent of North America.
What a wonderful world we live in.—Democrat's Monthly.

RAPID COURTESY.

A young gentleman from New York saw a certain young lady at one of Lothian's morning concerts and fell desperately in love with her; he sought her name, and subsequently an introduction, courted her diligently for two days, and upon the third was able to introduce her as his affianced wife. The gentleman is very fine-looking, but comparatively poor, while the lady is really one of the handsomest that has been seen here this Summer, and, besides being the child of very wealthy parents, is said to be as modest and amiable as she is beautiful. The lady also resides in New York and has been summering with her parents at the Grand Union, but her lover's finances compelled him to take a less pretentious place, and he is a guest at one of the smaller hotels.
We are in possession of the names of the parties, but are requested not to make them public.—Sanatoga Sun.

A VALUABLE PLANT.

The sunflower is turned to extraordinary account in Lithuania. The seeds yield at first pressure excellent salad oil, and the residue forms excellent oil cake for cattle, who are also fond of the leaves and stalks chopped up. The flowers a little short of bloom are, when cooked, nearly as good as artichokes, and are in the garden very attractive to bees.— The leaf, well dried, is used as tobacco.— The seed receptacles are made into blotting paper, and the inner part of the stalks made into a fine writing paper. The more woody portions of the plant which attains great size, are used for fuel. The best is obtained in the Crimea. As an anti-malarial agent the sunflower is most valuable.

A celebrated lawyer once said that the three most troublesome clients he ever had were a young lady who wanted to be married, a married woman who wanted a divorce, and an old maid who didn't know what she wanted.

SOLID SOUTH versus SOLID NORTH.
HAMPTON versus SHERMAN.

POPULAR VERDICT FOR THE DEFENDANTS!

The glad tidings have gone forth to the world that the American people on Tuesday last triumphantly elected Garfield and Arthur to the Presidency and Vice Presidency of the United States. There has been a tidal wave that has swept through the Northern States and swamped the Democracy, and nevermore will that Party lift its head; it is as dead as Julius Caesar, Nevada and New Jersey are its principal and chief mourners. The following are the majorities in the several States as near as can be ascertained at this time:

T. H. HARRIS'S Proclamation.

The President has issued the following

At no period in the history since the United States became a nation, has there been so abundant and so universal reasons for joy and gratitude at the favor of Almighty God, or been subject to so profound an obligation to give thanks for His loving kindness, and humbly to implore His continued care and protection. Health, wealth and prosperity abound throughout all our borders; peace, honor and friendship exist with all the world; there is a firm and faithful adherence by the great body of our population to those principles of liberty and justice which have made our greatness as a nation, and to the wise institutions and strong frame of the Government and society which will perpetuate it. For all these, let the thanks of a happy and united people, as with one voice, ascend in devout homage to the Giver of all good.

I therefore recommend that on Thursday, the twenty-fifth day of November next, the people meet in their respective places of worship to make acknowledgment to Almighty God for His bounties and His protection, and to offer to Him prayers for their continuance.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the City of Washington this first day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty, and of the independence of the United States the one hundred and fifth.

R. B. HARRIS.

DIVIDEND.—The Standard Consolidated Mining Company will pay its regular seventy-five cent monthly dividend on Friday next, the 12th, in San Francisco and New York.

NO "CHANGE" REQUIRED.

The success of Garfield and Arthur in the great contest on Tuesday last was a surprise to no one but the Democracy. It has been patent to the masses of the Republican party ever since a month after the nomination of Hancock that James A. Garfield and Chester A. Arthur would be elected President and Vice President of our great and progressive country—a community of interests requiring the highest order of statesmanship to conduct the affairs of the Nation; and the public record of General Garfield proved him to be the Statesman well fitted to occupy the highest position in the world, and so has a large majority of American freemen decided. While the result of this election would have been the same, the immense majorities given in the North for Garfield was an emphatic answer to the menace of a "Solid South," that so long as there remains a "Solid South," just so long will there be a "Solid North"; but it is to be hoped that another Presidential contest will see a better feeling existing in every section and among all classes of our countrymen, and that all will be battling for the greatest good to the greatest number, without regard to sections or race.

The Administration of President Hayes, now drawing to a successful close, has been one of the best the country has experienced since Washington's time, and the people have indorsed it, and very decidedly pronounced against any "change" in the conduct of public affairs; and it is a cause for congratulation that the pure and honored Statesman James A. Garfield is to be at the head of the Government for the next four years, and with a Republican Congress to carry out his measures.

New York.—The Empire State gave 50 counties for Garfield and 13 for Hancock.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

MONS SHOOTING.—About 4 1/4 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon Thomas Hawkins shot Henry Robbins, the ball passing under the right collar-bone, just above the lung, and lodging against the spine. It appears that Hawkins and one Lane had a wordy altercation, during which the latter made a fist demonstration, whereupon the former stepped back, drew a revolver and shot Robbins—an innocent spectator, who fell as though dead. Under the impression that he had been shot to death a determination to lynch Hawkins was expressed, and such would have been the case had his victim not been found living. Robbins is a young man of good habits and intended, in a short time, to visit his mother and sister in Vermont. Hawkins is one who has helped saddle a criminal debt of $40,000 upon the law-abiding taxpayers of Mono county, but, we believe, that in the near future he will receive his just deserts, and without cost to the county. Robbins is paralyzed up to the middle. His attending physician, Dr. Sinclair, and Drs. Deal and Rogers consulted on Wednesday, and the conclusion was that if inflammation set in he could only survive a few days; but that he might live a month under the paralytic only. It was a cruel deed, and the good people of Bridgeport will not forget it. The prisoner was sent to Bodie, under Sheriff Massey not deeming it advisable to lodge him in the county jail until the excitement subsided.

A PRISONER.—The law firm of Kittrell, Owen & Huffaker, of Bodie, found itself in an unpleasant predicament on election day. Owen was a candidate for Superior Judge of this county, and Kittrell was a candidate for the State Senate from Ormsby county, Nevada, and Huffaker was not a citizen of the State. Under these circumstances neither partner could assist the other, and both candidates had to paddle their own canoe, while the third partner was compelled to stand and see his partners swamped in the great Republican tidal wave.

CHRISTMAS PRESENTS.—Now the election is over the Christmas holidays will soon be upon us, and when friends must be remembered. In another column it will be seen that Bodie's leading jeweler, L. Hollander, is receiving a fine stock of watches, jewelry, and silverware, suitable for holiday presents, and to be offered at prices that will enable the most humble—even a printer—to make a present to a friend. When you visit Bodie, call at Hollander's and examine his stock.

FINE FURNITURE—REMOVED.—H. Ward, the pioneer furniture dealer of Bodie, has removed to his new store next south of Miners' Union Hall, Main street, Bodie, where he has one of the finest stores on this side of the mountains. Mr. Ward has a fine stock of furniture in store and is selling at prices to suit the times. An Undertaking Room is connected with the establishment, and all business in this line will be promptly attended to.

SOMEWHAT OFF.—Bridgeport polled 91 more votes than last year—nine-tenths of the increase being Democratic, which resulted in a Republican majority of only 4. Having claimed the precinct all the way from 40 to 70 majority, the Republicans were much disgusted, but the good news is the continent soon dispelled it, and the scene was serene.

SUPERIOR COURT.—The Superior Court, Department No. 2, Hon. M. P. Wiggins, Judge, will convene on Monday morning next for civil business. Department No. 1, Hon. E. M. Briggs, Judge, will convene on Wednesday for criminal business.

A NEW FLAG.—At sunrise on election day our citizens raised a new and splendid American flag on the new Court House. It was purchased at Siles B. Smith's, of Bodie.

FAT TURKEYS.—E. F. Gibson, of the Union Fruit Market, Bodie, has fine turkeys and chickens always on hand at the lowest market prices. Also fresh cranberries, fruits of all kinds, candies, etc.

THE MAIL.—The Bridgeport and Bodie mail now leaves the Postoffice at each end of the route every morning at 9 o'clock, which is a more convenient arrangement for our people.

Hancock won't have 5,210 visitors within the next ten days. The grindstone has "busted" and no axes can be ground.

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS.—The Board has been in session this week, and will meet on Monday to canvass the votes.

STOPPED RUNNING.—The Sonora stage has been withdrawn for the winter.

WILL BE JOYFUL.—The Bodie Republicans will be joyful this evening.

Last week's late exchange, a man named Glynn, who was employed at the state factory at Boise City, Oregon, came in contact with a buzz-saw, and one of his arms was cut entirely off just above the wrist. The unfortunate man had presence of mind enough to replace the severed member, but in his haste turned it so that the palm of the hand faced outwardly. This mistake, noticed at once by a fellow workman, and the arm was placed in its proper position, but, as applied, and a physician being fortunately obtained, the flow of blood was stopped, and there is a fair prospect that in a few months his arm will be as good as ever. Certainly a most wonderful escape.

A large and brilliant meteor was seen near Winnemucca, last week. A stockman claims to have followed its path and seen it as large as a wash tub.

B. H. Carrick, Treasurer of Storey county, Nevada, is short in his accounts $22,482 44, and has been arrested.

A RAVEN TRIBUNAL.—In the leading journal of Geneva, a well-known Alpine tourist published an account of the proceedings of a raven tribunal, accidentally witnessed by him during a recent excursion in the Swiss mountains. Descending from the region of glaciers, he came upon a small secluded glen, surrounded by thick cover, concealed in which he was enabled to contemplate a strange spectacle. From sixty to seventy ravens had formed a circle round one of their fellows, obviously a misdeed, whose alleged delinquencies they were eagerly engaged in discussing with infinite clatter of croaking and wing-flapping. Every now and then they interrupted their debates for a brief space to listen to the energetic representations of the prisoner, who conducted his own defense with amazing fervor, the judges breaking out into a deafening chorus of comments and refutations after his every statement. Presently, having arrived at the unanimous conclusion that the arraigned bird had failed to exculpate itself, they suddenly flew upon him from all sides, and tore him to pieces with their powerful beaks. Having thus summarily executed their own sentence, they dispersed, leaving the remains of the dead offender bestrewn the very seat of justice.

BODIE ITEMS.

THE ELECTION IN BODIE.—Election day passed off without any disturbance in our sister town, Bodie. A much larger vote was polled than was anticipated, but every voter and his neighbor turned out and worked hard all day to save the country, and from ten o'clock till after the closing of the polls there were large crowds in the vicinity of the polling booth, but all were in good humor. The saloons were all closed—in front; but a prominent candidate for a local position allowed his office to be made a bar room of, and all day long a steady stream of humanity flowed in and out of his hospitable office, where their "whistles were wetted" through the attentions of a young limb of the law, who boasts of having dealt out whisky to about two hundred brother Democrats. Most of the business houses were closed during the afternoon and our merchants put in some good work for their favorites. The result of the election will be found in another column.
